The information supplied continues to be protected by copyright. You are free to use it for your own purposes, including for private study and non-commercial research and for any other purpose authorised by an exception in current copyright law. Documents (except photographs) can also be used in the UK without requiring permission for the purposes of news reporting. Any other reuse, for example, commercial publication would require the permission of the copyright holder.

Request

I would be grateful if you could confirm the registration plates of the Liverpool/Wirral Arriva buses that were in the engineering workshop on 17th January 2020.

Response

Thank you for your enquiry, which has been processed in accordance with the Freedom of Information Act.

Merseytravel is not involved in the day to day operation of Arriva's bus services, and therefore we unfortunately do not hold the information you have requested. I would advise contacting Arriva directly via their website, although as they are not a public body under the Act any information that they provide to you would be on a purely voluntary basis.

I am sorry that we could not be of any further assistance on this occasion.

If you are dissatisfied with the handling of your request, you have the right to ask for an internal review, which should be addressed to:
